

AFFLICTED BY DESIGN

Lies, Lies, Lies!

On January 6, 2017, Afflicted By Design released their new Ep, Lies, Lies, Lies!. Mixing hard-driving rhythms and heavy guitars, with electronica, Lies, Lies, Lies! features the 2 new original songs "Automatic Static" and "Warm and Pretty Lies" along with 2 remixes of those tracks.

After recording and producing the previous Afflicted By Design releases on his own, Afflicted By Design frontman S.A. Sebastian Gnolfo enlisted Kfir Gov, of the Tech-n-Roll band Seek Irony to produce Lies, Lies, Lies! "It was difficult giving up control to someone else," says Sebastian, "but when I sat down with Kfir to go over the songs he showed me that I was writing like a guitar player, ignoring my vocals. After just a few minutes I was able to sing them better. I knew what it could work."

For Lies, Lies, Lies! Sebastian wanted to create something that combined industrial, punk and synth-pop, and Kfir helped achieve that vision, especially with the track "Warm and Pretty Lies," which features vocals by Rona Rougeheart of the band SINE. According to Sebastian, "Writing the lyrics to 'Warm and Pretty Lies,' it felt like a Human League song. I really wanted to capture that 'Don't You Want Me,' kinda vibe, but heavy. Kfir recommended Rona for the female lead. I had seen Rona play drums, but I didn't know she sang. Kfir introduced us, she got behind the mic, and her part really pulled the song together."
